

for a living planet®

Training workshop for Indian Forest Service Officers

Payments for Ecological Services

on

29-30 October, 2007

Venue: WWF- India Secretariat, 172-B, Lodhi Estate, New Delhi-110003

AGENDA

29th October 07 (9.30 am-5.30pm)	Resource Persons
Registration
Welcome, introductions and overview of workshop details (Rationale and importance of PES in Indian scenario)	Dr. Sejal Worah, WWF-India
Presentation & Discussion: Global Perspectives on PES	Dr Julio Tresierra, WWF- Netherlands & Global Coordinator Equitable Payments for Watershed Services WWF-CARE-IIED
Photograph
Tea/Coffee
Presentation & Discussion Emerging approaches for conservation: PES	Dr. T. R. Manoharan, WWF-India
PES Case Study	Dr Julio Tresierra
Lunch
Group exercise: Assessing feasibility of PES using 3 case studies	Facilitator: Dr Julio Tresierra
Presentation and Discussion: Operationalising PES on ground	Mr Chetan Agarwal, Winrock International India
5.30 pm High Tea	WWF Rooftop Terrace
30th October 07 (9.30am -4.00pm)
Presentation and Discussion: Policy & legal framework for PES mechanisms in India: Challenges and Opportunities	Dr Purnamita Das Gupta Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations (ICRIER)
Presentation and Discussion: Compensation payments for ecosystem services	Prof Kanchan Chopra, Director, Institute of Economic Growth
Tea /Coffee
Group exercise: Developing PES mechanisms at selected sites	Facilitator: Dr Sejal Worah, WWF-India
Lunch
Panel discussion Is PES viable option for India	NGO: Mr Chetan Agarwal, Govt: Mr Samir Sinha Private Sector: Mr Sanjeeva Pandey
Tea/Coffee
Concluding Discussions, Closing & Evaluation Certificate distribution	